BUSINESS ON GAIN

Precision Officials Optimistic Over Outlook.

While the general conditions in the automobile field, which is the heaviest customer of the Precision Castings Company, are still unsatisfactory, officials of this company are optimistic as to business outlook.

This company's plant which has been operated at a greatly reduced capacity, has at no time been shut down and the last week or two has resulted in inquiries and some business that reflects a general improvement. At the present time enough business has been released to keep the plant, as at present operated, busy for at least two or three weeks, and as the summer period is always dull this alone indicates a marked improvement of business conditions.

During the past few months the Precision Castings Company has built up a powerful sales organization and plans are being perfected to handle the largely increased business looked for.

PAVING NEARING COMPLETION

STREET OPEN BETWEEN MILL BURDICK STREETS.

Another Week Will See Paving Completed Between Mill and Manlius Streets. Gutters and Curbs Will Require A Few More Weeks To Complete.

Paving of Fayetteville's main street was halted Monday on account of the Italian laborers refusing to work eight hours instead of ten at 30 cents an hour. The eight hour order came from the State Department of Labor last week after receipt of a complaint from some of Fayetteville's I. W. W. sympathizers who complained that the John Johnson company was employing men on public work inside an incorporated village for more than eight hours a day in violation of the Labor Law.

The order followed an investigation by a state representative. Supervisor Peckham filed a protest that this was emergency work and asked for permission for laborers to work ten hours. It is believed that this will be granted but action has not been taken on the matter.

The strike came to an end Tuesday when the Johnson Company brought laborers from the Mycenae road job to replace the strikers. The new men work until 4 o'clock on the Genesee street contract and are taken to the Mycenae contract, outside the corporation, to complete their ten hours' work, while men from the Mycenae road are brought here and complete their ten hours in the village. Thus the law is complied with and undoubtedly the conscience of the kicker is quieted.

The entire width of pavement between Mill and Burdick streets was opened to traffic this week, doing away entirely with the rough detours through High Bridge and Thompson streets which have been necessary for the past six months. The laying of concrete on the south side of the railroad tracks has progressed as far as Warren street and with no set backs by the end of another week Genesee street should be completed with the exception of the intersections, gutter and curbing work will of course take several weeks longer.

Concrete laying was resumed Thursday on the Mycenae road where it was interrupted a few weeks ago in order to get materials to the Genesee street job.

P. M'S SELECTED ON MERIT

Business Experience And Executive Ability Count In Examinations.

The first examination in Madison county for appointment of a postmaster for a presidential office was held a few days ago to fill a vacancy at Onondaga. Acting Postmaster Jay Farrier received the highest rating and will receive the appointment. Editor Child of the Onondaga Dispatch also took the examination, as did also an employee in the Onondaga office.

Business experience and proved executive ability appear to count high in the examinations that have been arranged by the postoffice department in making applicants for presidential offices under the newly adopted merit system.

It's peculiar that so few of the usually bright children ever get to be president.

INCOME TAX RECEIVED

Fayetteville Gets About $1,000 And Manlius About $700.

Fayetteville receives nearly $1,000 and Manlius about $700 as their share of the state income tax paid by residents of the town of Manlius.

County Treasurer Ransom has already sent the check to the village officials.

According to the apportionment made by State Income Tax Bureau Onondaga County receives $274,329.43 from the total collected in the state. This is about $1,000 more than it was last year. The city of Syracuse receives nearly 71 per cent of the $205,004.31 of the money collected. This is about $3,500 more than it received last year.

The shares of the towns, villages and cities is based on the proportion that the total assessed valuation bears to the total valuation in the district. This is the reason why assessors throughout the county have been boosting valuations in the hope of increasing the amount their towns receive from the state fund.

The village of Solway receives more than any other village in the county, getting nearly $4,000. The villages of Eastwood and East Syracuse in DeWitt receives the second largest amounts.

The big feed in charge of sixteen affairs will be pulled out at 6 o'clock. Friends of the church are invited. As the new pavement in West Genesee street and the recently resurfaced road to Fiddler's Green are both now open, the picnic ground affords an ideal auto trip and a large attendance is anticipated.

MANLIUS TO BUY FIRE APPARATUS

VILLAGE ONLY ASKED TO CONTRIBUTE $1,500.

American-LaFrance Triple Combination Costing $5,500 Favored. Farmers Want Apparatus Powerful Enough To Plow Through Snow.

A special election will be held at Manlius on Aug. 9 for the purpose of voting on an appropriation of $1,500 toward a triple combination motor fire apparatus to cost about $5,000.

Frank B. Perry and Mrs. O. H. Perry have donated the $2,000 received from the sale of their springs toward the cost of the apparatus and the solicitation committee appointed by the Village Board has raised $1,700 in subscriptions from farmers outside of the corporation. This will make a total fund of $3,700, providing the appropriation is voted, or practically sufficient to buy an American-LaFrance or equally as good apparatus.

The LaFrance Company, one of the pioneer builders of fire engines, has just brought out a combination apparatus to sell at $5,500 which is practically the same outfit purchased a few weeks ago by the village of Baldwinsville at $12,500 excepting that it is lighter. A Reo combination outfit which has also been considered costs $4,800. Ford apparatus, similar to the one recently demonstrated here, is not being considered, as the outlying farmers do not think it has sufficient power to travel up the outlying hills in winter time. Most of the farmers express themselves as being willing to contribute more for better apparatus.

There should be no question about the appropriation being favored at the coming election when the village gets the benefit of modern fire fighting by paying less than one-third cost.

DOGS TO BE RESTRAINED

Petitions Claim Dogs Have Damaged Live Stock In South Part of County.

Orders were received Monday from the state commissioner of farms and markets (Pompey, Dewitt and LaFayette) to restrain from sunset until one hour after sunrise for the remainder of the pasturage season for livestock.

It was brought out in petitions to the commissioner seeking the order of restraint, that predatory dogs had caused injury to sheep, poultry and other livestock which resulted in damage awards in excess of the money brought into the township treasuries from dog taxes. The commissioner is empowered by the agricultural law of the state to issue restraint orders when the damage equals 50 per cent of the dog taxes.

Records on file in the courthouse show that in the townships of LaFayette and Dewitt dogs caused damage to livestock amounting to $1,640. Records for Pompey have not been been completed, but it is believed the amount there would bring the aggregate damage up to at least $2,400.

Trinity

Now and then we meet people who toss up a penny to save themselves the trouble of making up their minds. But even this is hardly more foolish than it is to follow blindly the first impulse that comes across our heads.

To act without stopping to think is the poorest economy in the world. Nobody wastes time so hopelessly as the person who decides without deliberation, who because of this wrong beginning follows the wrong path and finally is forced to retrace his steps and start again. The best time for a new start is on the first day of the week, which happens to be the Lord's Day. A wrong start on this day is the beginning of a descending scale. Sunday neglected means neglected worship. Neglected worship causes religious decay. Religious decay generates moral carelessness. Moral carelessness involves disastrous consequences. A little hard thinking before we begin to act prevents pain, but many a heartache as well. Start right in the right place. "I was glad when they said unto me, we will go into the house of the Lord." A good Sunday means a better Monday.

The Parson leaves the early part of the week on his vacation. We have planned a "peppery" program for the fall and winter work, and we hope to come back with plenty of "pep" to pull it through. We have arranged for one service each Sunday during August. Should the occasion arise where the ministrations of a priest are necessary, the Rev. Dr. Hayden, of Syracuse, will respond upon being notified by one of the wardens.

Before the chronicler lays down his pen, he wishes to express his indebtedness to the Editor of the Bulletin. "Printer's Ink" is a handmaid of religion and we are thankful for the privilege of these columns.

Manager Deuel has endeavored to arrange them so that all farmers the county will have a chance to attend without going a great distance. These demonstrations will be held on standard time at 10 o'clock in the morning and 2 o'clock in the afternoon. They are as follows: August 1-10 a. m. Indian Reservation, farm of Stephen W. Irwin; August 2-10 a. m. Spafford farm of Roy Leader; 2 p. m. Shanley farm of Donald H. Jaffe; August 3-10 a. m. Camillus, farm of S. B. Patterson; 2 p. m. (From The De Ruyter Observer.)
Last Saturday evening someone stole a black mare weighing about 1,000 lbs. from Walter Barber's premises at Wilboga; also a harness from Wm. G. Hahn's barn on the same road and a buggy from R. Y. DeWolfe's barn on the Crumb Hill road. The thefts were discovered Sunday morning and two state troopers stopping at the Taber House were asked to take a hand at running down the thief, but declined on account of an engagement at Cortland. A phone call to the Oneida barracks resulted in a promise to send men to investigate the case as soon as they could be spared, but none had as yet arrived yesterday and no trace of the thief or the stolen property has been obtained.
It is a virtue to be patient but a sin to let yourself be imposed upon.

Prof. Paul Van Dyke of Princeton university, it was announced by Prof. John W. Cunliffe, director of the Columbia university school of Journalism, has been appointed director of the continental division of the union to succeed Prof. E. B. Babcock, who will return from Paris to the fall to resume his duties as head of the department of Romance languages at New York university.

Doctor Cunliffe, who is secretary of the union's board of trustees, said that Professor Van Dyke would take charge of the Paris office of the union at 1 Rue de Fleurus on September 1.

Headed British Division.
Professor Van Dyke's appointment as director was made by the trustees of the union for 1921-1922. The trustees have reappointed Doctor Krans as assistant director at Paris. Dr. G. E. MacLean has been reappointed director of the British division, which has its headquarters at 50 Russell square, London.

Since the armistice, it was said, there has been an increasing desire on the part of the American students to study abroad. The American University union, Doctor Cunliffe said, was prepared to aid students abroad in every way, and to be of service to them before they leave this country. American students who wish to enter either British or French universities are urged by the trustees of the union to communicate with either the director of the British division or the director of the continental division, or with Doctor Cunliffe at Columbia.

"The American University union," said a statement issued by the board of trustees, of which President H. P. Judson of the University of Chicago is president and John G. Hibben of Princeton, vice chairman, "is an organization whose purpose is the interchange of French and American and British and American students and teachers. The union acts as a sort of educational clearing house for the three countries; through its medium a student learns the relative values of the American credentials and French or English degrees."

It facilitates the arrangement of all the preliminaries necessary before an American student can matriculate in any foreign university. It is concerned not so much with how to get the American student abroad as with what he is to do when he has got there. For this purpose the union has established headquarters in London, Paris and New York, where close contact between the American and the foreign institutions is secured, and the bond between the universities of the United States and those of the European nations is strengthened.

American Students Abroad.
The union is more necessary in peace than it was in war, according to the trustees, who say that the American student needs guidance when he reaches the other side. Letters have been received from American professors abroad stating that unless such guidance is at the disposal of the student he is exposed to the danger of being "rudderless in a choppy sea."
The municipal council of Paris has volunteered to give a suitable site for a Maison des Etudiants which shall serve as a permanent home for the union. The offer has been accepted by the union's trustees, and they are now seeking funds with which to erect the building.

The trustees also mean to secure an endowment fund of at least $300,000 to supplement the income derived from the annual membership fees paid by American universities and colleges for maintenance of the general work of the union. It has planned to obtain the major portion of this amount in gifts of $10,000, $25,000 and $50,000 each.

Country Has $5,000 Vacant Pulpits.
Approximately 35,000 churches in the United States are without pastors, and only 1,450 ministers will be graduated this year from theological seminaries to fill these places. Rev. Willard D. Brown declared at the annual synod of the Reformed Church of America, meeting in Albany Park, N. Y.

Germany Punished Soldier for Cruelty
Charged with criminal acts during the World war, Capt. Mueller, a German officer, was tried in Leipzig, Germany, and sentenced to six months' imprisonment. Mueller practiced cruelties on allied prisoners at a prison camp in the same department of France.

"Ouija! What's the good word?"

MY YOUNG sister,
HAS A Ouija board.
AND SHE believes it.
AND TALKS to Noah.
AND I think she talks
TO HER best fellow.
WHO'S DEAD but doesn't know it.
AND I used to give her
THE LOUD, rude laugh.
BUT I'M sorry now,
BECAUSE LAST night,
I WAS home alone,
SO I got the board,
AND PUT in a call,
FOR JOHN Harleycorp.
AND OTHER departed spirits.
BUT THE line was busy.
FOR NOTHING happened.
THEN I cheated a little.
AND IT spelled this.
"GRANMASHOTTA SEVEN."

SO I shut off quick.
TO HEAD off any
FURTHER FAMILY scandal.
THEN I stopped to smoke
A CIGARETTE.
AND AFTER a while,
I CRANKED up weejee.
AND ALL of a sudden,
IT STARTED off.
AND QUICK as a flash,
IT SAID something.
"THEY SATISFY."

"SATISFY"—that's the good word. Just light up a Chesterfield and see what experts can do with fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos when they blend them in that can't-be-faked Chesterfield way. You'll say "they satisfy."

Did you know about the Chesterfield package of 10?

THE CAVERNS OF LURAY

IN THE midst of the broad winding valley of the Shenandoah River—the "Daughter of the Stars" as the Indians called it—in northwestern Virginia, flanked on the east by a line of mountains known as the Massanutts and on the west by the main chain of the Blue Ridge range, is the quaint, oldish town of Luray.
Ten miles west is Cave Hill, under which is one of our great natural curiosities—the Luray Caverns, to which have come to wander, study and admire, scientists, explorers and tourists from every quarter.

Here the mysterious workings of nature have produced a veritable underground fairy palace, with miles of passageways lined with an infinite variety of curious, glimmering and wonderful formations. Almost every object of nature seems to be reproduced with surprising reality. The indescribably fantastic groupings of the weird and grotesque formations, the beauty and the coloring of the diaphanous tapestry effects and the translucent and symmetrical arrangement appear to be the handiwork of nature in a playful mood.

One chamber measures almost 400 feet in length by 125 feet in width. Others possess lofty, arched and elaborately ornamented domes. A most marvelous formation bears strong resemblance to a gigantic pipe-organ. When struck, these "chimes" give out, "ow, sweet, full notes which echo rather spookily through the surrounding caverns.

This cavern is brilliantly electric lighted, surprisingly free from dampness—in fact the atmosphere is pleasantly delightful, the normal year-round temperature is about 54 degrees and the journey through it an entirely new and novel and unusual sensation.

Looking Ahead.

Here is a new Northcliffe story from "The Mirror of Downing Street." The eminent editor had a caller who raised his hat and made a profound bow to the elevator boy as the two men, Northcliffe and his friend, went up to the editor's room. When they came down the friend again raised his hat and bowed low to the boy. Northcliffe remonstrated with him.

"You shouldn't joke with these boys," he said. "It makes discipline difficult."
"Joke!" exclaimed the caller. "Good heavens, I wasn't joking. How do I know that tomorrow that boy will not be the editor of the Daily Mail?"

Japan Jo Honor First Emperor.

Japan is preparing to build a pyramid for the first emperor, Jimmu Teano, somewhere in the suburbs of Tokyo, and for this purpose a committee of prominent men will collect a stone from every subject of the empire save the Argonaut. It is the intention to make this the highest structure in the Far East.

ALONE FOR EIGHTEEN YEARS

Indian Woman, Abandoned on Desert Island, Finally Found by Party of Otter Hunters.

On San Nicholas Island, which is uninhabited, a party of sea otter hunters, landing to chance their luck, found, to their amazement, the imprint of human feet on the sandy shore—imprints freshly made. They scattered in search. But the wind shifting and commencing to blow hard, they had to regain their vessel before the maker of the marks could be found. It was undeniable, however, a human being lived on this bleak, wind-blown island of sand and tall brushwood.

On returning to the mainland they reported the strange discovery, but nothing was done until a Roman Catholic priest was so moved by the news that he persuaded the captain of a small schooner to sail with him for San Nicolas. After two days' searching he discovered this lonely cruce—the first of a new kind. For he found inside a low hut of driftwood a woman more like a beast than a person.

She was clad in otter skins, and the feathered skins of the sea-fowl, and her companion was an otter, which she had caught very young and tamed.
The priest with difficulty got her story, for she had almost forgotten how to speak. Many years previously the small tribe of Indians to which she belonged—inhabitants of San Nicolas from time past—had been shifted by the government to the mainland. As they were being taken on board, her baby had fallen into the sea, and she had leaped after him, and in the dusk had been given up as drowned. She reached the shore, however, to find the child was dead. In utter loneliness she had lived there for 18 years.
