

Charming Visitor To Be Honored This Afternoon

In compliment to the charming Miss Nell Skaggs, who will depart on Wednesday after enjoying the fall season here, Mrs. Bryan F. Williams will entertain this afternoon with a bridge tea at her home. Guests at the event will include members of the younger social set.

From Chicago.

Mrs. Malcom Walker of Chicago has arrived here to spend the winter and will reside at the Highland Inn.

Mrs. Walker has visited here previously.

D. A. R. Meeting.

Members of George Washington Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Vedder.

Two interesting papers were read, one, "Morris Jumel House" given by Mrs. C. G. Waller, being part of the program for the year on historic buildings of America.

The other paper, read by Mrs. L. C. Van Name, was entitled "The Lone Woman of San Nicholas Island," and dealt with the story of a woman, Juana Maria, who lived for 40 years alone on the island of San Nicholas, off the coast of California, building her own shelter and making her own garments from the materials found there. She was accidentally abandoned when missionaries removed the natives from this island. Mrs. Van Name explained that the D. A. R. chapter of Santa Barbara had erected a tablet in memory of the woman.

Miss Sue Larsen conducted a general discussion on national activities of the D. A. R.

Mrs. Vedder was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Cortes Pauls.

Fraternity Event.

The Phi Alpha Sigma Fraternity will entertain with an informal holiday gathering at the fraternity house Wednesday evening.

To Attend Dance.

Bernard Bernadoni, president of the Galveston Reserve Officers and first lieutenant of infantry reserves, will be among those going from here to attend the military reception and dance to be given tonight at River Oaks by the Houston reserve officers.

NEVER let a day pass without reading THE NEWS WANT ADS.