D. A. R. LUNCHEON

"The Daughters of the American Revolution" are for national defense and try to offset the communistic and pacifist propaganda in this country," said Mrs. Alfred Brownson of Washington, D. C., president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution at a luncheon held Saturday in the Billmore, at Santa Barbara by the Santa Barbara, La Cumbre and Golden West chapters of the D. A. R.

"Our unity is in a deplorable condition and although we do not want to record other sections in our army program, we must at least equal theirs for our own national defense."

Mrs. Brownson stated that she was closing up old cases during her administration, which includes the rectification of the million dollars for Constitution, the memorial to Mrs. Caroline Scott Harrison, first president general, the memorial to the four co-founders of the D. A. R., and the student loan fund, which aids those young men and women who have such a desire for education that they will give their first earnings after graduation to repay their debt.

The outstanding national fund of the D. A. R. also will be a bill which can accommodate the hundreds of delegates coming to the conventions in Washington. The new $100,000 program Constitution fund will meet all the requirements.

Mrs. Winifred D. Heston announced that a tablet to the "Lost Woman of San Nicolas Island" will be unveiled by the Santa Barbara chapter at 2 o'clock next Saturday afternoon in the garden of the Old Mission.

This will be the first public ceremony ever to be held in the garden of the Mission. Permission has been granted by Father Augustine in honor of Mrs. Brownson.

Golden West Chapter of Victoria county is among those invited to attend.

More than 110 members were present at the luncheon including Mrs. Walter H. Meyer and Mrs. James Orvey of Oxnard. At the speaker's table were the following past speakers: Mrs. William Brownson and Mrs. Edith M. Moss, who presided; Mrs. Arthur Winfield, Mrs. Henry J. Fyler, Mrs. Guy P. Sawyer, Mrs. Charles Cox, Mrs. Winifred D. Heston, Mrs. Mark Bradley, Mrs. Clara E. Herbert, Mrs. N. S. Kaine and Mrs. Fred Jack.

Mrs. Elizabeth Weston, report of La Cumbre chapter, Mrs. O. H. Piper of the Golden West chapter, Mrs. William Pauline and Mrs. C. W. Wells also were at the table.

Mrs. Meyer reported a charmingly appointed luncheon, pastel swags, flowers, the floral decoration.

M. C. ART SECTION

A stimulating discussion and study in the work of the early Venetian artists will be given by Miss Mary Westcott of Santa Barbara, at the meeting of the art section of the Oxnard Monday Club in their classrooms at the Community Center on Thursday morning of this week. This is Miss Westcott's monthly visit to the club, and so far talks are always instructive and interesting, and have been illustrated, Mrs. G. E. Millin, captain of the section hopes that all club members who can will attend the section meeting.

ATHLETIC SECTION

Putting up exercises and basketball practice will engage the members of the athletic section of the Oxnard Monday Club in their weekly meeting in the Community Center gymnasium tomorrow morning. The meeting begins at 9:30 and all club members are welcome.

POK DANCING CLASS

While a tentative meeting of the new English folk-dancing class was held in the gymnasium of the Community Center two weeks ago, under direction of Secretary F. J. Hoken, and with an enthusiastic attendance, the first meeting of the class under the auspices of the regular instructor, Mrs. Smith of Ojai, will be held this Thursday evening, beginning at 7:30. Mrs. Hoken desires to recruit all those who attended the first meeting, and others interested in joining the class, that it is important to be present this week to get the full benefit of the course.

PLAYS FOURTH YEAR

FOR S. P. OPERETTA
Miss Frances Foster, talented violinist of Oxnard and Inwood, played first violin with the Santa Barbara orchestra, which had been the nucleus of their annual operetta Friday night and Saturday afternoon and evening. Their vehicle this year was "Christmas in Greenland" and was reported as very successful. This is the fourth consecutive year that Miss Foster has assisted the Santa Barbara orchestra in their operetta production. Her mother, Mrs. J. Lewis Foster, and younger children of the family enjoyed attending the operetta on Saturday night.

TRUTH

It would be well if people in every walk of life would more ably recognize the character of that great man whose memory we cherish, and whose Anniversary we celebrate tomorrow. Washington was truth personified.

Truth in advertising has long been the standard motto of the advertising clubs of the world, and as time goes on, the business man is accepting and applying this principle not only to his advertising but to all branches of his business.

D. A. R. LUNCHEON.

"The Daughters of the American Revolution stand for national defense and try to offset the communistic and pacifist propaganda in this country," said Mrs. Alfred Brosseau, of Washington, D. C., president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution at a luncheon held Saturday in the Biltmore, at Santa Barbara by the Santa Barbara, La Cumbre and Golden West chapters of the D. A. R.

"Our navy is in a deplorable condition and although we do not want to exceed other nations in our navy program, we must at least equal theirs for our own national defense."

Mrs. Brosseau stated that she was cleaning up old snags during her administration, which include the raising of the million dollars for Constitution hall, the memorial to Mrs. Caroline Scott Harrison, first president general; the memorial to the four organizers of the D. A. R., and the student loan fund, which aids those young men and women who have such a desire for education that they will give their first earnings after graduation to repay their debt.

The outstanding national need of tion to repay their debt.

The outstanding national need of the D. A. R., she said, is a hall which can accommodate the hundreds of delegates coming to the conventions in Washington. The new $1,000,000 proposed Constitution hall will meet all the requirements.

Mrs. Winfield B. Metcalf announced that a tablet to the "Lost Woman of San Nicolas Island," will be unveiled by the Santa Barbara chapter at 2 o'clock next Saturday afternoon in the garden of the Old Mission.

This will be the first public ceremony ever to be held in the garden of the Mission. Permission has been granted by Father Augustine in honor of Mrs. Brosseau.

Golden West Chapter of Ventura county is among those invited to attend.

More than 110 members were present at the luncheon including Miss Walter B. Meyer and Mrs. James Cerny of Oxnard. At the speaker's table were the following past regents in addition to Mrs. Brosseau and Miss Ethel M. Moss, who presided: Mrs. Arthur Garland, Mrs. Henry J. Finger, Mrs. Guy P. Sawyer, Mrs. Charles Kirk, Mrs. Winfield B. Metcalf, Mrs. Mark Bradley, Mrs. Clara E. Herbert, Mrs. N. S. Kaime and Mrs. Fred Jackson.

Miss Elizabeth Mason, regent of La Cumbre chapter, Mrs. O. H. Piper of the Golden West chapter, Mrs. William Paulton and Mrs. C. W. Wells also were at the table.

Mrs. Meyer reported a charmingly appointed luncheon, pastel sweetpeas forming the floral decoration.
