

Following are the copies of resolutions passed by the Mexico Bar some time ago regarding ex-Clerk Locke and ex-Judge Douglas, which the county court has ordered on record: Mexico, Mo., Dec. 28, 1886.—A meeting of the Mexico Bar and county officials.

W. A. Edmonston was chosen to preside over the meeting and F. C. Bryan was appointed secretary.

A committee on resolutions, consisting of Messrs. Ira Hall, Ben C. Johnson and Thos. Brown report as follows:

WHEREAS, A. J. Douglas is about to retire from the official station he has occupied for the last 12 years as one of the judges of the county court, be it

Resolved, that we esteem it a pleasure to make manifest in this public manner, our just appreciation of the faithful and intelligent performance of the duties of his office, which has characterized him during his long term in the management of the financial and other business interests of our county; and we would especially mention the fact that during the period of his service, we have witnessed our county relieved from a large and burdensome debt, and placed upon a financial basis, equalled by few and surpassed by none in the State.

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted. Upon motion, Mr. W. H. Kennan was appointed to present a copy of these resolutions to Mr. Douglas, and also to have them put upon record of the county court of Audrain county.

F. C. BRYAN, W. A. EDMONSTON, Secretary, President.

MEXICO, MO., Dec. 29.—A joint meeting of Mexico Bar and county officials.

W. A. Edmonston was chosen to preside over the meeting and F. C. Bryan was appointed secretary. A committee on resolutions consisting of Messrs. S. M. Edwards, Orlando Hitt and W. B. McIntire reported as follows:

WHEREAS, B. L. Locke, who has held the position of Clerk of the County Court of this county for 21 years, is about to end his official career; therefore be it Resolved, by the members of the Audrain county and the members of the Mexico Bar, that by the retirement of Mr. Locke from the public station which he has held so long and whose duties he has so faithfully and intelligently discharged, the county has lost an officer whose superior in the capacity he served, it will not find. But while losing him as a public officer, we know that the good influence of his private virtues as a man, a citizen and Christian gentleman will always remain with us.

The report of the committee was unanimously adopted.

Upon motion Ira Hall, Esq., was appointed to present a copy of these resolutions to the county court and ask to have them put upon the record of the county court of Audrain county.

W. A. EDMONSTON, F. C. BRYAN, President, Secretary.

MAYOR S. P. EDMONSON, in a card in Thursday's LEDGER, publicly announces that he will not be a candidate for Mayor. He has all the time told his many friends and all parties with whom he has talked, that under no circumstances would he be a candidate. Mayor Edmonson has been elected twice, both times without asking or working for the honor. He was chosen by the business men of the city as a man eminently fitted to care for the business interests of the city. He did not disappoint even his most enthusiastic supporters. He took charge of the city affairs at a time when the city was out of money and at a time when its liabilities and responsibilities were much greater than ever before. He has been most faithful in his work for the city, never shirking any responsibility and always acted promptly in a manner which he thought would best subserve the interests of our growing city. He retires to private life with the best wishes of all who have the good of Mexico at heart. Every Democrat in the city should attend the primaries and see that such a business man as Edmonson is elected to take up the work where he leaves off.

Crigger-Kunkel.

One of the most pleasant weddings we ever attended was that of Prof. L. P. Crigger and Miss Lizzie Kunkel, at the residence of the bride's father, Thursday, Rev. N. S. Johnston officiating. The attendants were Miss Lena Kunkel, Miss Crigger, Thurston Duncan and Ren Gibbs. The wedding was quiet, only an few of the intimate friends being present. The supper was truly a wedding feast and was appreciated by all. The presents were useful and beautiful. The groom is well-known as one of Audrain's most steady and industrious sons, while the bride is a most sociable and accomplished young lady. Both the bride and groom have the advantage of a collegiate education. The guests departed, wishing long life to Mr. and Mrs. Crigger. They left for the home of the groom's parents at Martinsburg Friday, where a grand "infant" was given Saturday night.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, near Middleton last Thursday, Dr. Vandewater and Miss Lucy Mosby, both of this county. Dr. Vandewater is one of Audrain's most worthy and influential citizens and this bride is a most lovable and pious lady. The LEDGER extends congratulations.

J. D. Morris went to Laddonia Friday. Bob Graham says he went to shoot quail. As the law is out for quail, we guess he is holding the sack for snipe.

A Mountain Mystery.

Parties returning from hunting trips to the mountains often tell strange tales of their experience when miles away from human habitation, of conflicts with grizzly bears, mountain lions, etc., but by far the most weird story we have heard is told by two well-known young men of this place, who were on a prospecting tour some time since near Cobblestone Mountain, at the northern boundary of this county. The story they tell—and they are willing to take their oath on the truth of the statement—is about as follows:

One cold night they were simultaneously awakened about 2 o'clock by the noise of crackling brush that had been thrown on the fire. They arose to a sitting posture and saw the figure of an Indian woman standing by the fire. She was dressed in a robe of gayly-colored material that almost reached to her feet. A glistening necklace, evidently of gold and silver, enriched her neck, and hanging pendant from evidently of gold and silver, enriched her neck, and hanging pendant from this were a number of bears' claws. Her black hair reached below her waist. In her ears were large hoop ear-rings of gold.

Upon seeing the form, one of the young men instinctively reached for his rifle by his side, while the other started in amazement at seeing such a sight in the dead of the night and thirty miles from any house. When the figure saw the motion made to reach the rifle she motioned for them not to fire and moved down the trail, beckoning to them. Before disappearing from view she again beckoned to them, but they were too dumfounded to follow.

The next morning they followed the trail, and after much difficulty traced the foot-prints to the base of a high cliff about a mile from their camp. The rest of the story is told to this effect: "When I awoke," said one of the young men, "I was horrified. I couldn't move to save my life. I was frozen with astonishment. The next morning we discussed the matter, and determined to investigate. So the next determined to investigate. So the next night we took our blankets and went to the base of the cliff. At about midnight, the same hour the figure appeared to us, we saw a bright phosphorescent light on the brow of the cliff, and I am sure we heard a voice calling 'Meeneeah! Meeneeah!' several times. This is the strangest experience I ever passed through. I never have believed in ghosts, but I would like to know what this was. If it was a woman how did she come there at that time thirty miles from civilization?"

An old Indian tradition is to the effect that many, many years ago an Indian maiden—Meeneeah, the only daughter of a chief—was lost in this region and starved to death near the place called Squaw Flat. It is said that different camping parties have seen the phosphorescent light spoken of in the vicinity where these young men were camped. Can this be a parallel case with that of the Indian woman abandoned on San Nicholas Island for eighteen years?"—Ventura (Cal.) Free Press.
